

FALMOUTH MINI REUNION UPDATE – 23 JUN 19

First of all, there are no changes from the times and venues for the Friday and Saturday gatherings, both will start at 1900 Friday at The Quayside and Saturday The Chain Locker.

There is a website, falmouth.co.uk, if you would like more information on the places to visit – but don't set your sights too high because without the need of a long-range forecast, I can promise it will rain all weekend. Plenty of pubs for Eddy though and a castle or two.

The Sea Shanty weekend has just finished and was a great success, even our choir managed to secure three bookings over the two days and needless to say managed a few beers on the way. Unfortunately for S61 the Beer Festival is the first weekend in October but I'll make sure that we are represented.

By the time we meet Brexit will have happened and through Facebook I know that Joe and other Veterans will have herded together and driven all immigrants over the cliffs of Dover, Dave will be investigating getting his campervan onto the Arctic or Antarctic for a historical tour, Mike will have saved all the gay whales by changing the environment and Steve will have another band to follow or be banned from somewhere. Whatever, I'm sure we will have a great weekend.

I won't bore you with any more details because the usual mini routine is to pitch up and get on with whatever happens but if you do need more information just drop me an email or give me a call 07884323750.
